I. Factual Background

The defence joined with other users created a way of communication with the intent of getting into power, be this under legal means or not legal ones.

The defence after not responding, being warned, offered an attorney and the defence choosing to represent himself and thus I, the judge, held the trial in absentia.

The ticket was opened the 12th of May 2025, and thus a long time has passed.

III. Proven facts

First. That the user was clear of this being a coup “We basically hold all positions and they can’t replace us”

Second. In the private group chat the defendant himself admitted it being a coup “the technical coup”

Third. The user “I also want to nuke the government”

Fourth. The evidence presented by the prosecution is beyond reasonable doubt and leaves no space for interpretation on the intent of committing a coup and thus “Undermining the democratic process” JCC 2.4.1.

II. Grounds for the Judgement

That the defendant if convicted of treason is subject to a 120 hours timeout to a permanent ban under the Julian criminal code 2.4.

That the action is according to the definition of treason under the Julian criminal code 2.4.
