Timezone referred in this sentence: CET

I. Factual Background

The question/case is filed by the President as there is a question of constitutionality as per article 7.3.1.1 C. The question comes as certain people have appeared twice on the ballot, once for President and once for Senator

II. Grounds for the Judgement

First. The Constitution clearly states that “Individuals are not allowed to be on the ballot twice including as president and senator.”

Second. Now the question we present ourself is which of both results is the one to be declared valid. As the first election on the ballot is for the executive branch and thus the voter had that first in mind we agree that that is the valid result.

Judgment

1. That the results of the election for Toast (464075939765026817) and Heen (1325111121300164651) on the senatorial ballot are unconstitutional and thus invalid.
2. That all other disputes are hereby declared constitutional.
3. Thus, by this our sentence,
I pronounce, command and sign it.
