Bill 1.3 – Government Bias Act

1. Any piece of news, media, or propaganda that is directly written by a member of the current executive or legislative branch must state the person that wrote it and their party affiliation (if applicable).
2. Using a government member as a source (e.g. a direct quote from them) does not count as being directly written by that member. If multiple members in the current government wrote the piece, they must ALL be stated.
3. If the court finds the defendant guilty of this statute in a criminal case they will be convicted of failure to disclose bias, the Judge(s) shall, as they see fit, issue a fine of 1,000-5,000 credits. (Last paragraph added by Bill 1.29)

Bill 1.27 – Alternate Account Regulation Act

1. Key Definitions
  - a. Primary Account

- i. The first account that a user joins the server with.
- b. Alternate Account
  - i. A non-primary account owned by a user already in the server.
- c. Investigative Alternate Account
  - i. An alternate account used to investigate illegal activity.

2. Restrictions

- a. Alternate accounts cannot vote in elections or polls. Additionally, alternate accounts cannot react to messages.
- b. Alternate accounts cannot engage in discussion as a primary account would.
- c. Alternate accounts cannot be used to bypass laws only applicable to a primary account.

~~(Further parts removed under Bill 3.17)~~

3. Investigation/Anonymity

- a. Alternate accounts can be used to investigate illegal activity as long as they are only used for the investigation and leave the server after the investigation is complete. These are known as investigative alternate accounts.
  - i. These undercover alternate accounts have exceptions to sections 2.e and 3.b, however they are still applicable to all other rules.
  - ii. The Ministry of Registrar cannot announce that these special accounts are alternate accounts to anyone outside the ministry.
- b. In order to officially become an investigative alternate account, the account must not only register with the ministry of registrar, but also be approved by the president.

- i. In the case the account is being used for an investigation against the president, it must be approved by  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the senate that is not in the same political party as the current president. This approval will be done in DMs.

~~(Registration section removed under Bill 3.17)~~

Bill 1.37 – Conviction Disclosure Act

Short title

1. This act is the Conviction Disclosure Act

Interpretation

2. In this act, unless context otherwise requires —

A "Conviction" is any guilty conviction of any crime committed in any server related to Julia.

"Disclosure" is the act of making previously unknown information known.

Disclosure

3. Everyone must fully disclose any previous convictions in and/or from any Julia related servers to any party leader, government official, employer, or head of an organization before joining or being hired of any sort.
4. All people in whom the information is disclosed must be told the whole truth and may ask for more details at any time.
