

Lower Court
Judgement No. #00052
Date of Judgement: 3/22/25
Type of Proceeding: Criminal Court Case
Type of Judgement: Guilt/Non-Guiltly
Parties Involved: The State Of Julia V. Moose

1. Factual Background

This lawsuit pertains to that of the NCRA. The article states that no one may have a “title” in their name. It is known that Moose had two potential violations. One where he was a senator-elect and had a senator in his name with 3 hours left to go before he was officially a senator. And another that was done in protest of the law itself calling himself a “God Emperor” There are screenshots to back up each of these claims.

2. Grounds for Judgement

The law itself is left vague but gives an example of someone claiming they are a senator when they are not. It would not be unfair to imply that, within that case, the bill's intent and the way it is written was meant to and should only imply attachments to names that are meant to denote a status of in a political or nonpolitical body. From this alone, the “God Emperor” instance to be rendered expect from this law. Additionally, this is what the case was originally filled off of. The notion that someone should not be able to, as a form of protest, make an absurd name for themselves as a form of protest is beyond frightening. Additionally, In regards to the charge of calling himself a senator, while this itself would apply, It is important to note he was a senator at the time, it was simply a senator-elect. While there is a slight difference in title it is reasonable for someone to call themselves a senator when they are about to take on the role of such.

3. Judgment

The court finds Moose NOT GUILTY on all charges.
